COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE The Shoch Library Disadvantageously Lo

cated. The present location of the Shoch library is very undesirable, as the street is very dark, dismal and loneson . W. B. Given, esq., proposes the following changes for its better accommodation, which will meet popular approval : Rent the second story room of Odd Fellows' ball and use one half of it as a library and the other half as a reading room. Of course those visiting the reading room would either have to be subscribers of the library or they could not use the books. Paper, etc., would be furnished, and in fact everything to make it a permanent success will be done. Good order will be insisted upon being maintained and forced it necessary. We hope Mr. Given will receive the cooperation of the rest of the committee and | the school bond. It will be a little more expensive to the board, as they pay no room sent in the present place, but an amount of good will result from it. We like to see everybody enjoy themselver, but for the sale of making the reading room a permanent place we would advise that no games, such as cords, checkers, etc., be allowed, as it causes a great deal of tighting and squabbling. RESCUED FROM DEATH The following statement of William J Coughin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we less to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1276 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the langs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half coitar. CAPERS IN COURT.

FRIDAY EVENING, DEC. 16, 1881.

THE GUITEAU COMEDY-FARCE.

MORE OUTBREAKS OF PETULANCE

The Assassin Interrupting and Insulting Counsel and Witnesses-Progress of the Triat. WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.-The court room was densely crowded as usual this morning. Col. Corkhill was not present at the opening of court, which led Guiteau to say he heard Gen. Reynolds was sick this morning and he wondered if Corkhill was sick, too. He guessed they both got more than they wanted yesterday. The record of the court in the divorce proceedings of Guiteau's wife was presented, and notwithstanding objection from Mr. Scoville, was admitted by court.

Gen. Reynolds was again placed on the stand and Guiteau became petulant at Scoville cross-examined witness, with Guiteau frequently interjecting insulting remarks.

General Reynolds read from notes he had taken on the occasion of his first interview with Guiteau. Quoting the prisoner's words, he read, "If there is a Stalwart in the land I am he; Grant, Conkling, Logan and Governor Cornell are First production here of Gilbert and Sulli-van's latest and most successful Comic Opera —a satire on the .Esthetic Craze, the big guns among the Stalwarts, and I rank with them.'

Guiteau retorted: "Inever said I could rank with them... But, as a matter of fact, I think I can."

A number of newspaper slips which the witness had read to the prisoner at this interview, to show what were the sentiments of Grant, Coakling and others, in regard to his (prisoner's) crime, were then read by the district attorney.

The prisoner became very angry when a the latter says: "My son tells me Guiteau is a dead beat." The prisoner then shouted "This is what Fred Grant says. He's a nice pill, is'nt he! Hanging round his father! I should say he's a bigger dead beat than I am."

Another passage was read, which spoke of Guiteau's crime as a "most audacious act." Guiteau interrupted: " And so it was, to enter that depot and shoot down the president of the United States, surrounded as he was by all his friends. 1 have wondered at it a good many times. How I ever did it I thought to myself this morning. I would not undertake it again for a million dollars, but I was in such a desperate state of mind I could not resist it. I was impelled upon the presi dent by a pressure I could not resist. Ellen A. Grant was called and Guiteau at once shouted. "Mrs. Grant was the lady I bearded with, prior to the first of July. She is a very fine lady and I owe her $47. I trust I shall pay you soon Mrs. Graut, as soon as these fellows holding fat offices shall respond to my call (striking the table excitedly) I made them and if they don't soon contribute I shall call aut their
